

BLANKETS and COMFORTERS

The cool, chilly nights and early mornings make you say mighty quick, "B-r-r-r, where is the blanket?" If you plan buying a blanket or comforter, wisdom points and to immediate purchase.

Nashua Wool-nap Blankets

For hard service there are no better Blankets made than these. Though all cotton, they are remarkably warm and strong. They have a deep soft nap that is permanent. They won't shrink or tear out. All colors and sizes, priced from $1.75 to $3.00. Other Cotton Blankets 75c and up.

Capp's Indian Blankets

Our assortment of these beautiful Blankets is complete in every detail. We have the subdued shades of the southern tribes, and the wild riots of colors of the northern Indians. They come in beautiful combinations of colors and every Blanket is 100 per cent. wool.

Bath Robe Blankets

The new Bath Robe Blankets are now on display in a big range of colors and designs. Be sure to see them while the assortment is at its best.

The Homer Fitts Company

MONTPELIER

In city court this forenoon Hiram Thorton, recently released from the house of correction, where he served a sentence for larceny, pleaded guilty to intoxication and paid a fine of $5 and costs. He was arrested Sunday evening while making a disturbance in the French block on Main street.

Frank Lamperti, who will resume his studies at the University of Vermont next week, went to-day to Burlington to assume his work as teacher in the night high school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sumner of St. Paul street returned this morning from Manchester, N. H., and Boston, where they passed a week with relatives.

Miss Agnes Fountain of Barre street resumed her duties this morning as clerk in the city clerk's office, after enjoying a vacation of ten days which she passed at Loon lake and Plattsburg, N. Y.

Station Agent J. P. Gallagher of the Central Vermont railway returned Sunday afternoon from New York City, where he went the first of last week on business.

George Gingsas of Main street left Sunday evening for Winooski to resume his studies at St. Michael's college, having spent the summer vacation in the city with his parents.

William P. Gallagher, who has been a member of the Montpelier baseball team during the summer, left Saturday evening for his home, New York City, where he plans to operate a farm, having completed his college course.

The condition of Gerald Taylor, who has been at Heaton hospital since Tuesday night, remains about the same, his name being on the dangerous list.

Fred L. Laird, jr., leaves to-night for Hanover, N. H., to resume his studies at Dartmouth college.

James M. Healey resumed his duties on the editorial staff of the Argus today, after having spent a two weeks' vacation at his former home, Springfield, Mass.

Miss Margaret Newton left Saturday afternoon for Hartford, Conn., where she will visit her brother for ten days. She was accompanied by Miss Lillian Henry, who will spend a week with friends in Dorchester, Mass.

Harold Mack, who has been employed in the G. E. Megrath store during the summer, left last night for Boston to resume his studies in the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy.

F. W. Mitchell, John O'Neill, William Armstrong, C. E. Lowe, Edward Gill and D. R. Campbell returned to-day from Canada, where they motored ten days ago for a fishing and hunting trip.

Miss Louise Barnardini commenced work this morning in the office of the National Life Insurance company.

Julius Wilcox returned to-day from Plymouth, where he passed the week end with his family, who are visiting in that town.

Rev. Thomas McCarthy, assistant pastor of St. Augustine's church, who submitted to a serious operation last Wednesday, is somewhat improved to-day.

The Masonic corn roast will be held Tuesday, Sept. 19, on the farm of James Rae in the town of East Montpelier. Members meet at the hall at 6:30. Autos will leave immediately after that time from the park.

New school hats at Abbott's.

TALK OF THE TOWN

White enamel ware in Abbott's bargain basement.

Big line of children's school shoes. Lowest prices. Shea's Shoe Store.

Save money on your children's school shoes. Purchase at Shea's Shoe Store.

A five-reel feature, "What a Woman Will Do," at the Bijou to-morrow—adv.

Miss Theresa Dix of Franklin street commenced work in the shoe department at the Homer Fitts Co. store this morning.

Miss Edna Dasher left this morning for Chelsea, where she will resume her duties as teacher in the Chelsea graded school.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Hughes of Elm street returned from Burlington last night, after visiting relatives over the week-end.

The auction sale of household furniture conducted by Dan A. Perry at Merrill Russell's in Montpelier Saturday night, well attended and the property brought good prices.

E. J. Trask, president of the Bay State Artesian Wells Co., arrived in the city yesterday and will spend several days in the city on business connected with his company.

Nelson Hardy, who has been visiting friends on North Main street during the past two weeks, left this morning for Middlebury, where he will enter Middlebury college this week.

Mrs. Walter Randall, formerly of Barre but now of Milton, is visiting friends in the city for a few days. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Randall will be glad to hear that they are running a very successful mercantile establishment in Milton.

A party of about 25 members of the Italian colony of North Barre journeyed to the Townsend grove Saturday night, where they held a corn and marshmallow, the company enjoyed a few games, after which they returned to the city at a late hour.

Every member of the Barre Board of Trade, with his lady, is expected to attend the sixth and probably last get-together or better acquaintance tour of the 1916 season, to be held at Northfield, Wednesday evening, Sept. 20. It is the wish of the Board of Trade committee that this Northfield trip be made the banner trip of the season. Automobile owners are requested to offer the use of their cars for the occasion to B. W. Hooker, G. R. Varnum, E. C. Glysson or F. H. Rogers. Supper tickets can be purchased of the above committee or H. A. Phelps.

Stony hill on Hill street is to escape at least a part of the odium attached to a roadbed hitherto so rocky as to be dangerous to travel. Under the direction of the street superintendent a coating of fine stone chips and granite dust is being applied to the thoroughfare from the Barre Chelsea railroad crossing to the top of the Hill street decline and again as far north as the crest of the Perry street hill. Autoists and those who still rely on the horse will be among the first to appreciate the improvement. The steam roller is stationed on the hill, to remain there until the work is completed.

Choir boys of the Church of the Good Shepherd to the number of 50 gathered at Sunnyside farm Saturday evening as the guests of Mrs. A. W. Allen, the occasion being their annual corn roast. In the group who took possession of the farm in the early evening were a number of boys who were formerly associated with the choir as well as other guests. The boys carried along some of the necessary fixings for a real corn roast and what with apples, corn and other necessities supplied at the farm, there was an abundance of everything for all. Before the choir laid song several rousing songs and gave three cheers for their hostess. The corn roast was postponed from Friday evening because of the inclement weather.

Several friends of Miss Hattie Gregory invited her to the pictures Saturday night, while the remaining members of the party went to her home to decorate the parlor in order to give her a surprise on her return from the movies. On her return home she was greatly surprised to find about 20 of her lady friends assembled to give her a linen shower in honor of her approaching marriage to Charles Stewart, a Montpelier merchant. The room was decorated in pink and white, the table in the center of the room being enclosed with streamers of pink and white crepe paper attached to a hook in the ceiling, giving the streamers a cone shape effect. The presents, which consisted of cut glass, oil paintings, linen and various other gifts, were placed within this enclosure of crepe paper on the table. The guests were served cake and ice cream for refreshments.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1916.

The Weather

Tuesday fair and continued cool.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Big line of children's school shoes. Lowest prices. Shea's Shoe Store.

Mrs. F. E. McNulty is passing several days with friends in Burlington.

A. L. Foster and Wilfred Letourneau were week-end guests in Bath, N. H.

Save money on your children's school shoes. Purchase at Shea's Shoe Store.

Mrs. Frank G. Minard of Highland avenue returned to the city Saturday evening from a visit of several days in Boston.

Miss Ruth Humphrey left to-day for Northfield Falls, where she will commence her duties as a teacher in the graded school.

Miss Edith Annis, who has been visiting relatives in the city during the past two weeks, left this morning for her home in Rutland.

Miss Harriet Houston of Maple avenue commenced her duties in the office of Supt. Carroll H. White at the Spaulding building last week.

Among the Chelsea visitors in the city Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young, Wesley Underhill, B. A. Goodrich and Fay Allen.

Mrs. W. A. Livermore, who has been passing several weeks with relatives in Barre, returned this morning to her home in Waltham Highlands, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bancroft and son, John, returned to their home in East Calais last night after visiting friends and relatives over the week end.

E. H. Belden, who has been in the city during the past two months, left Saturday night for Brandon, where he has found employment on a farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Converse returned to their home on Church street yesterday, after visiting friends and relatives in Woodstock for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Donahue of Burlington arrived in the city yesterday and will visit for a few days at the home of Miss Kathleen Miles of West street.

Hugh Seaver, formerly a clerk at the A. P. Abbott store, returned to his home in Randolph last night after spending the week end in the city with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clara Hamilton of Richford passed through the city yesterday while on their way home from an automobile trip to Boston and vicinity.

James Miller, who has been working at Port Kent, N. Y., during the summer months, returned to Barre last night and will resume his duties as teacher this week.

Mrs. James Murray of Manchester, N. H., arrived in the city last night and will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of Cliff street for a few days.

Elden Corliss, who has been employed in the Barre stonehills during the past year, left yesterday for Buffalo, N. Y., where he has found employment as a stonecutter.

The game which the Italian A. C. was negotiating with the Portland, Me., team of the Eastern league was called off this noon, as the Portland team disbanded this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mortimer of St. Albans, who are visiting relatives in the city, left yesterday for Northfield, where they will visit friends and relatives.

Frank H. Bartlett, who has been taking a vacation as jeweler at Goodfellow's store, resumed his duties this morning, after visiting friends in Portland and other points in Maine.

George R. Ford of Boston, publisher of Granite, Marble & Bronze, arrived in the city this morning and is registered at Hotel Barre, while passing several days in the Barre granite belt on business.

For a fusillade of shots which he discharged from a revolver in addition place on the night of Aug. 25, Pasquale Coia paid a fine of $25 and costs aggregating $60.50, when arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning.

Coia was arrested by Officer David Henderson on a complaint made to Grand Juror Wislart. The warrant charged him with a technical breach of the peace.

It was alleged by the authorities that Coia was passing a revolver shot at a party given at the residence of a friend and that an investigation led to the apprehension of Coia, who is said to have fired the gun in the direction of a house.

Tourist business and transients taking all the accommodations at the Hotel Barre through the week-end. Among the guests arriving were the following: Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hume of Toledo, O. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hunt of Lynn, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Leith of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Nathan of New York, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bridgman and Mr. and Mrs. B. Billings of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kennington of Winthrop, Mass.

E. M. Kibbe, W. C. Pease and Fred E. Field of Somers, Conn., Mr. Trainor of White River Junction, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Theald and W. N. Theald of West Rutland, Mrs. D. M. Aldrich of Northfield, J. E. Clark of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

J. L. Mosley of Northfield, K. Kirk, H. B. Jenks of St. Johnsbury, H. D. Skeels of Burlington, E. W. Comstock, Leigh Comstock, G. R. Comstock, Mrs. F. W. Comstock of Barton, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Johnson of Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilson of Bethel, Mrs. C. F. Burke of Manchester, N. H., Miss Nellie E. Cook of Glover, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Ross, Miss Helen C. Ross, Miss E. M. Ross and Miss Martha Aldrich of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Bralley, Mrs. C. S. Bralley, Norman and Christine Bralley of St. Johnsbury, Miss C. Enright of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Jewett of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Carl D. Williams of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Drew of Philadelphia, W. H. Pelton and R. J. Donahue of Randolph, B. R. Madigan of Burlington, C. E. Merrill, F. H. Hammond, Miriam Hammond, Mrs. F. H. Hammond and Miss Ada Hough of Brattleboro, Mr. and Mrs. A. Denison of Newfane, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blodgett of Framingham, Mass., and Edward F. Blodgett of Leominster, Mass.

and chauffeur, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seymour and W. R. Seymour of Swampscott, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hatch and Mrs. M. A. Hatch of Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. George Pelkis of Milford, Mass., and Leon Donahue of Gloucester, Mass., John A. Cross of Northfield, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Knight of Manchester, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whipple of Lynn, Mass.

To the Public.

You can get your shoes repaired cheaper here than any other place in the city with the best quality leather obtainable. All kinds of black, tan and white rubber soles and heels. The shoe shop with the classy work. M. Charbonneau & Son, Keith avenue, basement Worthen block.

Union Dry Goods Company

New Models in Fall Suits, Coats and Dresses

A most complete and interesting display of the newest fashions for fall wear — garments that have style and quality and at PRICES QUITE A LITTLE LESS than you will be asked to pay elsewhere.

SUITS at $19.50, $22.50, $25.00

Stylish Suit models in Fine Serges, Poplins, etc.; up-to-date in every particular, and coats lined with guaranteed linings. Let us show you.

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL DRESSES

Splendid values in Girls' Dresses for school wear.

CHILDREN'S RAIN COATS

in Tan and Navy, special at.....$2.50

CHILDREN'S RAIN CAPES

Special at.....$1.98

COATS AT $10.00, $12.50, $14.50

Exceptional values in our showing of new Winter Coats in misses' and ladies' sizes. A large assortment to select from. Make your selection early.

THE NEW DRESSES

will surely please you. Styles that are entirely new and different from what you will find elsewhere.

UNDERWEAR AND HOSIERY for the children.

Get the children ready for school.

Monday Evening Special, 6 to 8 O'clock

Sale of Best Quality Outings, at 9c yd.

For this evening's sale, we offer 1,000 YARDS of BEST GRADE OUTING FLANNELS. This is indeed a very timely offering and one that you should take advantage of. You will need these goods right away, so buy all you can use at this special low price. A large assortment of good patterns to select from, full pieces, not remnants. On sale to-night at.....9c per yard

(Shop early: store closes at 8 o'clock.)

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

191 North Main Street

Telephone 599-M

TALK OF THE TOWN

Big line of children's school shoes. Lowest prices. Shea's Shoe Store.

Mrs. Waldron Shield has gone to Waterville, Ia., for a month's visit.

Save money on your children's school shoes. Purchase at Shea's Shoe Store.

Wanted—10 men and 10 boys. Apply stage door, opera house, Tuesday at 5:30 p. m.

Mrs. Sadie Roberts, 67 Maple avenue, dressmaking by the day or at home. Phone 244-1.

Mr. Albert Beattie returned to Bethlehem, N. H., this morning, after spending the week-end with Mr. Beattie.

John Clark of the A. Tomasi block went to his former home in Rutland this morning for a week's visit with relatives.

Miss Cora Batchelder of Hill street left yesterday for Brandon to resume her duties as a teacher in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Grogware and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cutler were in Corinth one day recently and picked 80 quarts of blackberries.

Miss Margaret Meams of Westerville, who has been visiting Malvenia and Corenia McCormack at Cutler Corner, has returned home in order to start school.

Editor L. B. Johnson of the Randolph Herald and News and Mrs. Johnson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilson of Bethel, were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Harold Patterson, who has been employed at the A. P. Abbott store during the past year, completed his duties there Saturday night. Eugene Maker will take his place.

Edson L. Lander, who conducts a restaurant in Lebanon, N. H., is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lander of South Main street, for a few days.

Mrs. George Kossuth of Graniteville passed through the city yesterday while on her way to Boston for a sojourn with relatives. Before returning home she will visit in Maine.

"The Finer Metal," a two-reel drama featuring Hobart Henley; Dorothy Phillips and Ben Wilson in "The Code of His Ancestors," also a comedy, "Wanted—A Husband," at the Bijou—adv.

William B. Quinn of Dorchester, Mass., who passed the week-end in Barre as the guest of C. L. Hoernle at Goddard seminary, left this morning for Hanover, N. H., where he is to enter Dartmouth college.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Ladam and little daughter, Cecile, who have been passing a few days in the city as the guests of Mrs. Peter Marrior of Summer street, returned to their home in Burlington last evening.

Miss Nellie Slora commenced a vacation of two weeks from the Union Dry Goods Co. Saturday night and accompanied her mother, Mrs. George Slora, to New York, where they will visit relatives for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Rounds and daughter, Dorothy, of Park street returned yesterday from an automobile trip to Fairfield, where they accompanied Miss Abbie Moxley, who is an instructor in the Bellows Free academy.

A party consisting of Adolph Lane and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Glidden, Charles Cole and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Carr, Arthur Macneil and family, George Walker, Miss Alice Walker, Mrs. W. H. Haviland and Miss Ida Haviland motored to Smuggler's Notch yesterday by the way of Stowe, picnicking at the spring during the noon hour.

About 30 friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyzer and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tierney of South Main street during the past week, gathered at the Tierney home Saturday night in honor of the guests, who left for their homes in Hartford, Conn., yesterday. The guests were entertained throughout the evening with games and a musical program.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—A man for general farm work. Jamison Brothers, Williamstown, Vt. 15713

FOR SALE—Sheds and small pigs. Paul Kingston, West Hill, South Barre, Vt. 15718

FOR SALE—Good 4-wk-old pigs; also stock and horse hay and a few loads of oat straw; remember, I dump on hand nice dry wood, dried under cover; call and see. Walter C. Mason, Williamstown, Vt.; telephone 281-24. 15716

WANTED—At once, a young man with experience in shoe store. Apply by letter to "X," care Times office. 15717

TO RENT—Two office rooms, connected, in Dodge block, over creamery. Inquire at the creamery. 15712

GRANITEVILLE

While shingling Anthony Donahue's roof, Nazar Letourneau fell Thursday afternoon and broke his collar bone.

Mr. and Mrs. William Glenn went to Concord, N. H., Thursday, where Mr. Glenn has employment.

Miss Jimmie Morrison, who is a member of the nurses' training school in Schenectady, N. Y., is home for a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCaskill have returned to their home in Montpelier after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miles.

Miss Mildred Miles left yesterday for Warren, where she has a position as teacher.

Arthur Rousseau has returned from a business trip to New York.

Miss Frances Finnegan left Saturday for Sheffield to teach and Miss Jessica McVey will teach in Danville.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Glander Thursday, Sept. 14.

Miss Agnes Murphy went to Burlington Saturday to enroll as a student at Mount St. Mary's academy.

Philip Murphy has returned to his work in St. Johnsbury after a week's vacation.

The town schools and convent opened to-day.

Miss Laura Sutor of the Barre City hospital spent Sunday at her home here.

C. Roscoe Melver has been released from his duties at Fort Ethan Allen and will spend a week here before entering Norwich university.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston, who have been spending two weeks with relatives here, left yesterday for their home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Frank Finnegan and Charles Scott have gone to Higgate on a hunting trip.

Mrs. Anna Carey has returned to her work in Burlington after a short visit here. She was accompanied by her son, Harold Carey, who will enroll as a student in St. Michael's college, Winooski.

Miss Ruth Murray has returned to Williamstown after visiting relatives here for a week.

Miss Bess Hammett of Roxbury returned yesterday to begin her duties as a teacher.

The regular distribution of door prizes held at Gilbert's hall Thursday evening was prevented by Deputy Sheriff Dennis Donahue on the ground that it is an unlawful act.

Miss Clara Byersaft has gone to Cabot to teach school.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander, Roswell Miles, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Houghton of Barre spent Sunday at Camp Perry, Pigeon pond, in Plainfield, with Mrs. Margaret Alexander, who is in camp there for 10 days.

Every member of Victor lodge, No. 41, Odd Ladies, is requested to meet in Miles' hall Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for practice.

Why the Wedding Was Quiet.

A prominent lawyer who, after two months of widowhood, took unto himself another spouse, was very indignant when he read in one of the local papers the following notice of his marriage:

"The wedding was very quiet, owing to a recent bereavement in the bridegroom's family."

WAITSFIELD

A corn roast was held at J. L. Baird's Saturday night.

Union prayer meeting Thursday evening at the Congregational church at 7:30.

Mrs. Everett Marshall is confined to her bed by illness, and Mrs. George Pierce is caring for her.

Wallace W. Howe has purchased a residence in Burlington and will enter the real estate business in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed House, Mrs. Flora Moriarty and Mrs. A. B. Tucker attended the funeral of Mrs. Esther C. Hewitt, held in Warren Thursday.

Alba and Leslie Durkee of North Duxbury and Henry Parcher of Waterbury were guests of Fred Hunt Thursday.

On Tuesday evening, the Robekas and Odd Fellows will meet, the occasion being the 65th anniversary and old home week.

The Nature club will hold its next meeting Sept. 30, and members are requested to present papers telling of their vacations.

Miss Irene Coursey has entered the senior class at Beeman academy, New Haven.

William and David Mills left Monday for St. Johnsbury, where they attend St. Johnsbury academy.

James Moriarty has entered St. Johnsbury academy.

Lydia Bisbee has returned to Goddard seminary.

Everett Wallis has entered the senior class at Goddard seminary.

W. E. Long and family spent Sunday at Groton pond.